JG Hause Construction is still here working for you in accordance with current orders in both states.

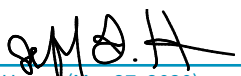

We are all aware of the ongoing outbreak of the Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) Although the situation continues to evolve, JG Hause Construction remains fully committed to pursuing the completion of our work in a safe, diligent and reasonable manner under the current circumstances. While we must recognize, there is a strong likelihood that we will encounter certain delays as a result of this pandemic, we will forge on with all work from planning and design to construction and production with adjusted processes and efforts to reduce the risk of transmission for all involved.

During this uncharted time, JG Hause Construction remains committed to providing Quality, Integrity and Value in every project for the past 35 years.

For some, this might be an ideal time to focus on your roofing, siding or deck needs. There is much planning we can do safely and remotely with Zoom Video or the like. Contact us today to discuss working together at a level you are comfortable with.

Together we will get through this. Stay Home. Stay Healthy.
